community foundation
Muskegon County

Marketing and Communications Associate

Reports to: Marketing and Communications Manager
FLSA status: Full-time, salaried

General Summary

The Marketing and Communications Associate supports the development and implementation of marketing and communications activities to promote awareness of the Community Foundation and philanthropy. The Associate assists the Marketing and Communications Manager in planning and organizing special events and activities as well as producing high-quality content to promote the work of the Community Foundation in print, digital, and social medias. Works in collaboration with philanthropic services to develop and cultivate donors via special events and publications.

The Marketing and Communications Associate also works with Frauenthal Center's team in executing its communication plan. Contributes to decisions that impact the ongoing reputation of the entire organization and strategic planning and implementation.

Diversity, equity and inclusion are important values of the Community Foundation. We are striving for a diverse workforce, made up of staff that represents the communities we serve.

Principal Duties and Responsibilities

(These are intended to describe the general requirements for the performance of this job. It is not intended to be an exhaustive statement of duties, responsibilities, or requirements. All duties are to be performed in accordance with established Community Foundation policies, standards, and protocols.) Works with Marketing and Communications Manager to effectively communicate ideas and strategies.

Planning and Coordinating

1. Plans and coordinates various events, specifically those for donor development and cultivation. Often works in collaboration with philanthropic services.
2. Researches, evaluates, and recommends event site selection, vendors, or contractors for events.
3. Coordinates Community Foundation staff assigned to support donor events and activities by working with supervisor(s) to effectively coordinate work priorities, schedules, and assignments.
4. Participates in planning and coordinating general community events.

Marketing and Public Relations

1. Develops and produces donor-centric creative concepts and written content for newsletters, brochures, invitations, pamphlets, annual reports, press releases, news stories, fundraising materials, and digital presentations.
2. Provides grammatical expertise and proofing to ensure the highest level of quality in all published materials.

3. Assists with Web content creation and implements Community Foundation social media strategy across multiple digital platforms.
4. Assists in the review and evaluation of materials prepared by other staff to ensure consistency and clarity.

Design and Publishing

1. Develops and produces Community Foundation publications using print, digital, and/or social media.
2. Coordinates and schedules production or printing with outside vendors.
3. Ensures that all publications are current, accurate, and in adherence with the Community Foundation style guide.
4. Keeps Community Foundation website up to date, updating and changing content as necessary.

Information Management Systems

1. Adheres to established protocol and standards when entering or updating data.

Professional Development

1. Keeps current regarding trends and developments in design, communications technology, community foundation marketing and communications, including applicable laws and regulations, through reading of professional literature and attendance at appropriate seminars, conferences, and workshops.

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities Required

1. Preferred completion of a bachelor's degree in English/writing or communications/marketing or three to five years of related experience.
2. Excellent communications skills, both verbal and written, necessary to deal effectively and persuasively with a variety of internal and external contacts. Must be able to effectively represent the Community Foundation and Frauenthal Center to many different audiences.
3. Proficiency in proofreading and editing as well as ability to meet tight deadlines and prioritize multiple projects.
4. Familiarity with style guides, particularly Associated Press and the Chicago Manual of Style.
5. High-level interpersonal skills necessary to work with others, interact effectively and courteously with diverse groups and be socially perceptive in contacts with all individuals.
6. Exercises a high level of thoughtful and insightful judgment within areas of accountability.
7. Knowledge and skill in utilizing Microsoft Office and Adobe Creative Suite software.
8. Knowledge and skill in executing website management on a WordPress platform.
9. Ability to handle confidential information in a professional manner.

To apply:

1. Submit cover letter with salary requirements
2. Three writing samples, including one example of social media management
3. Resume and/or application to Rick Cornell at rick@muskegonfoundation.org or 425 W. Western Avenue, Suite 200, Muskegon, Michigan 49440 by June 5, 2019.